CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

19th January, 2005.

P.C. :

The dispute between the Petitioners and the First Respondent has been settled after the Petition was heard and an adjournment was sought to explore the possibility of an amicable solution. An order has been passed in companion Writ Petition 759 of 2002 disposing of the Petition in terms of Consent Minutes that were agreed upon between the management (the Petitioners herein) and the employee (the First Respondent herein). In the present case, on 11th March, 2002 when the Petition was admitted, the Petitioners were directed to deposit in this Court three months' salary which is stated to have been deposited. The amount was withdrawn by the First Respondent in terms of the liberty which was granted on 11th March, 2002. Parties are agreed that since the dispute has been settled in terms of the Consent Terms which were taken on record in Writ Petition 759 of 2002, this Petition may be disposed of in view of the settlement which has been arrived at. The amount which has been withdrawn by the First Respondent, it is agreed, shall be adjusted against the dues that will be payable to him in accordance with the Consent Terms. Since no other point has been pressed, this Petition is accordingly disposed of.
